

CONTENTS

PHOTOGRAPHS	X
MAPS	XI
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	XVI
ABBREVIATIONS	XVIII
INTRODUCTION	21
I. The Creation of Palestinian Refugees: A Historical Perspective	27
Context and History of the 1948 War	32
How the Palestinians Became Refugees in 1948: Historical Arguments	34
The General Debate about 1948	44
II. Mandate Palestine: Prelude to War and Displacement	51
British Repression of the Arab Rebellion for Independence	55
Zionists Prepare for Decisive War against the Arabs	58
Zionists at War with the Mandate Government	61
The British Abandon the Palestine Question to the United Nations	66
The British Regional Command Predicts Civil War during Withdrawal	70
III. Zionist Militarism and Arab Population “Transfer”	79
Zionist Concept of Population “Transfer” or “Cleansing”	79

Forced Depopulation: A Strategy for the “Arab Problem”	82
Zionist “Transfer” Planning Debated	88
Assessing Arab and Jewish Forces	89
Palestinian Arabs: Unprepared for War	90
Zionist Military Superiority Recognized by 1946	91
The Zionist Command’s Confidence in Military Superiority	92
The Yishuv’s Preparations for War	94
The Probability of Forced Partition	95
Haganah Ability to Repel Arab Attacks	97
Arab Inability to Stop Partition	99
U.S. Military Expectation of the Zionist Scenario	103
U.N. Expectation of Partition	106
British Expectation of a Zionist Coup d’Etat	107
The Mandate Ends with Overwhelming Zionist Military Superiority	108
IV. Creating a Vacuum: The British Withdrawal	117
Military Decision Making in Palestine	120
Withdrawal: A Major Setback for the British	121
British Efforts to Save Military Stores	122
British Withdrawal: An Open Secret	123
Fallout from the U.N. Vote	126
British Policy: Do Not Intervene	127
The Breakdown of Law and Order	129
Logistical Difficulties of Evacuation	131
Troop Deployment and Command Restructuring	134
V. From Provocation and Reprisal to Open Warfare	139
Response to the U.N. Vote: Violence, Apprehension, and Planning	139
December 1947: The Beginning of Haganah Offensive Action	148
The Reign of Terror in Palestine	151
Organized Internecine Strife	153
Open Organized Warfare	155
British Decisions Contribute to Further Chaos	156
Infiltration of Arab Volunteers	159
Beginning of the Arab Exodus	163
Escalation: Bombing and Offensives	165
VI. The Collapse of the Palestinian Arab Community	173
The U.S. Retreat from Partition	175

The Implementation of Haganah Plan Dalet	179
The Battle for the Roads	182
The Battle of al-Qastal	184
The Dayr Yasin Massacre	185
Dayr Yasin: The British Factor	192
Dayr Yasin's Impact	193
The Battle of Mishmar Ha'emek	195
An Earlier End to the Mandate?	200
The Battle for Jerusalem	201
The Jerusalem Subdistrict: Driving Out the Arabs	207
The Capture and Depopulation of Tiberias and Subdistrict	211
Other Depopulated Villages and Towns of Tiberias Subdistrict	215
A Pattern of Forced Transfer	217
VII. The De-Arabization of Haifa	227
Haifa Engulfed in Terror	228
Zionist Determination to Seize Haifa	232
Escalation of Violence in Haifa	232
A Looming Battle	234
British Redeployment in Haifa	237
The Unfolding of the Haifa Battle	241
Truce Negotiations	243
Evaluating the Arab Exodus	248
Debate over the Arab Exodus	250
Haifa after the Zionist Takeover	253
Political Fallout from the Zionist Victory	254
Depopulated Villages and Towns of Haifa Subdistrict	260
A Pattern of Zionist Intimidation and British Nonintervention	264
VIII. "Cleansing" Jaffa and the Coastal Plain	271
Spontaneous Violence in Jaffa	271
Zionists Motives for Attacking Jaffa	275
Temporary British Military Intervention in Jaffa	279
Mass Arab Exodus from Jaffa	282
Why the Refugees Left	285
Exiling the Jaffa Subdistrict's Arabs	291
Tulkaram Subdistrict's Arabs Driven Out	296
Arabs Expelled Completely from Al-Ramla Subdistrict	299
Gaza Subdistrict: "We Were Expelled Everywhere"	307

“Cleansing” Operations: Reliability of Zionist Records Examined	313
Beersheba Subdistrict’s Villages Demolished	315
IX. The Shattering of Arab Palestine	325
Safad Subdistrict Arabs Nearly Obliterated	327
The “Cleansing” of the Galilee	328
The Siege and Expulsion of Arab Safad	329
The Expulsion of the Baysan Arabs	337
The Baysan Subdistrict: Terror, Expulsions, and Looting	339
The Siege and Depopulation of Acre	340
The Acre Subdistrict’s Forced Depopulation	346
Depopulated Villages and Towns of the Nazareth Subdistrict	349
The End of the British Mandate	350
Arab Forces Unlikely to Enter Palestine before May 15	352
Zionist Policy: Expel the Arabs	353
Massacres, Psychological Warfare, and Obliteration	355
Unanimous Predictions of Zionist Victory	359
X. A Pattern and Practice of Intimidation and Violence	368
British Policy during Withdrawal	371
Escalation of Hostilities by Arab League Actions and British Inconsistency	373
The Aggressive Zionist Posture	375
The Phases of “Ethnic Cleansing”	377
The Main Causes of Palestinian Displacement	378
An Enduring International Problem	382
APPENDIXES
1. Palestinian Arab Towns and Villages Depopulated by May 15, 1948	386
2. Methodology and Sources	393
3. Interview Questions	402
4. Biographical Notes	404
PERMISSIONS	407
BIBLIOGRAPHY	408
INDEX	423